Description:

Inspired by the French charm and refined Parisian style we present you a new project - "Romance Paris".

The architecture of Romance Paris is a free improvisation of Renaissance, a bit of Baroque and later neoclassicism combined into one whole composition shows the grace of the object.

We have chosen a special place for the building - Sveti Vlas.

The location is exceptional because of the natural formation of the wind rose which is a circulation of the mountain air with the sea breeze. Just the combination of sea and mountain air which creates a specific ionization of the air masses over the area is very useful for health and enables the prevention and treatment of various respiratory diseases and lung diseases.

The ideal sea climate is close to the Mediterranean.

Just a few steps separate you from the beach.
